EXCELSIOR

Lynden Christian High
Lynden, Washington

Foreward

The word "Freedom" appears on almost every page of American History, for from the docking of the Mayflower to the capture of the Pueblo, men have worked, struggled and died so that freedom could survive. Unfortunately, freedom has been abused as men have tried violence, destruction and misconduct to exercise theirs'.

The theme of the '68-69' Excelsior is Freedom. Its purpose is to review the freedoms which we exercised throughout the year at Lynden Christian High. Though we were not aware of it as we engaged in busy routines and gay activities, we have exercised freedom, not because we have fought for it but because God has given it.

We have enjoyed political freedom by which we could enjoy and develop other freedoms, and with them we have defined our own course of high school life by choosing and rejecting the opportunities given us.

Yet most important is the freedom we have in Christ — not a freedom to do as we will, but a freedom from man's greatest bondage. While men have fought to possess an artificial, temporary freedom, we as Christians can be comforted and strengthened by knowing that we have a genuine, unchanging, eternal freedom.

We, The Excelsior Staff,
Dedicate This 1969 Excelsior
To You, Mr. Blankers

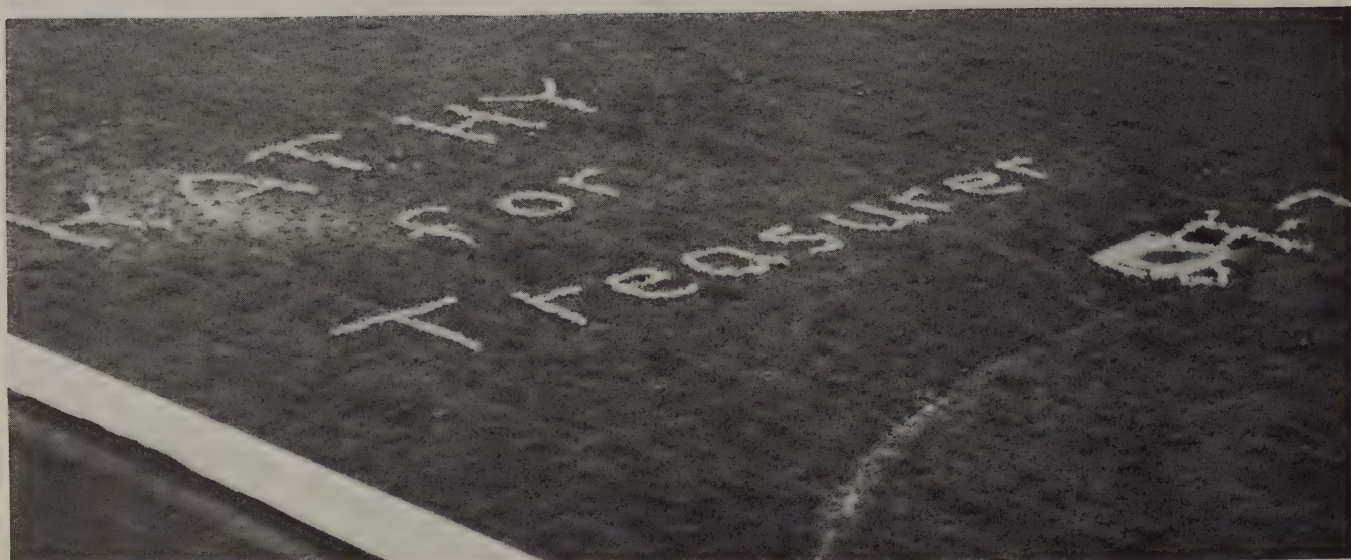

As a tribute to the teacher who has spent eight years at Lynden Christian High guiding bewildered students through the maze of math and science, the annual staff dedicates the 1968-69 Excelsior to Mr. Blankers. In serving as our senior class sponsor, freshman track coach, and sponsor for girls intramurals, he has earned the respect of all.

We hope that God will continue to bless Lynden Christian with the services of this capable and dedicated teacher.

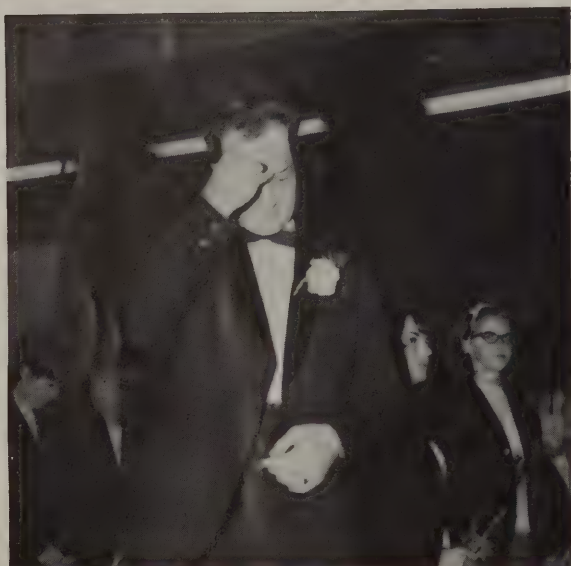

To you, Mr. Blankers,

Thank-you,
from the students of Lynden Christian
High School

ACTIVITIES

Every Tuesday and Friday students exercise that most precious of all freedoms in chapel. Recognizing the Giver of all liberty, they seek to praise Him in song, speech, and prayer. Thanks is offered for the freedom that is eternal as expressed in Galatians 5:1 "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke bondage."

Chapel

ASB Assembly

What seemed an endless week of booster buttons, speeches, and skits finally paid off for the four students who will be taking up their new student body offices. President Rick Holleman is now in charge of the gavel and assisted by vice-president, Wayne Kaemingk. As secretary, Cheryl Bode will record all the accomplishments of the student council while treasurer Kathy Heutink worries about its financial problems. A big thank-you goes to the officers of the '68-69' school year.

Mixer — Twirp Week

New Ideas at L.C.H.S.

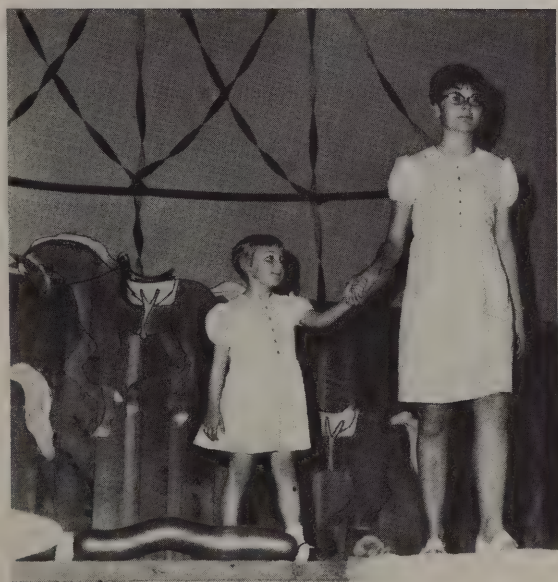

Not all was books and study this past year. Freshmen were the star attraction as underclassmen, upperclassmen, and faculty were again scrambled together at the annual Mixer. Time spent in anticipation was well-rewarded when students happily watched the frosh initiated into the mysteries of high school life. Games for all got everyone into the act during an enjoyable evening.

The shoe was on the other foot during Twirp Week at Lynden Christian High. Girls were permitted to ask out that special boy they had had their eyes on while boys got a taste of waiting for a date. To give the girls a break, the student body provided entertainment at a party on the final night of the week.

Mother's Tea Has a Theme of "Spring Carousel"

Smile now, pivot, a few more steps, and out the door. Another model sighed with relief as she left the long ramp stretched out in the chapel. This was the annual Mother's Tea, under the theme of "Spring Carousel" given each year by the girls of the Home Economic classes with the freshmen providing the refreshments. Judy Timmer and Brenda Kooy narrated as the girls modeled the different clothes they had sewed themselves. A few special numbers and a salute to the mothers and daughters completed the evening.

Athletes Honored a

"Salute to the Stars" Banquet

In honor of our athletes the Pep Club Banquet was done in the setting of "Salute to the Stars". To bring out a military setting, stars were constructed on the walls, with colored lights reflecting on them. It proved to be an exciting and memorable event. Awards in football went to Hank Roorda (Inspirational Award) and Dave Terpstra (Coaches' Award). In basketball, the Player of the Year Award went to Hank Roorda and the Darigold Sportsmanship Award went to Jim Vander Mey.

This year's farewell banquet to the seniors was held at the Leopold Hotel. A Swiss setting carried out the theme "Climb Every Mountain." The stage scene, servers, and table decorations added atmosphere. It proved to be an exciting and memorable night.

Debate

Two organizations which do probably more toward academic development than most others are the Debate Team and German Club.

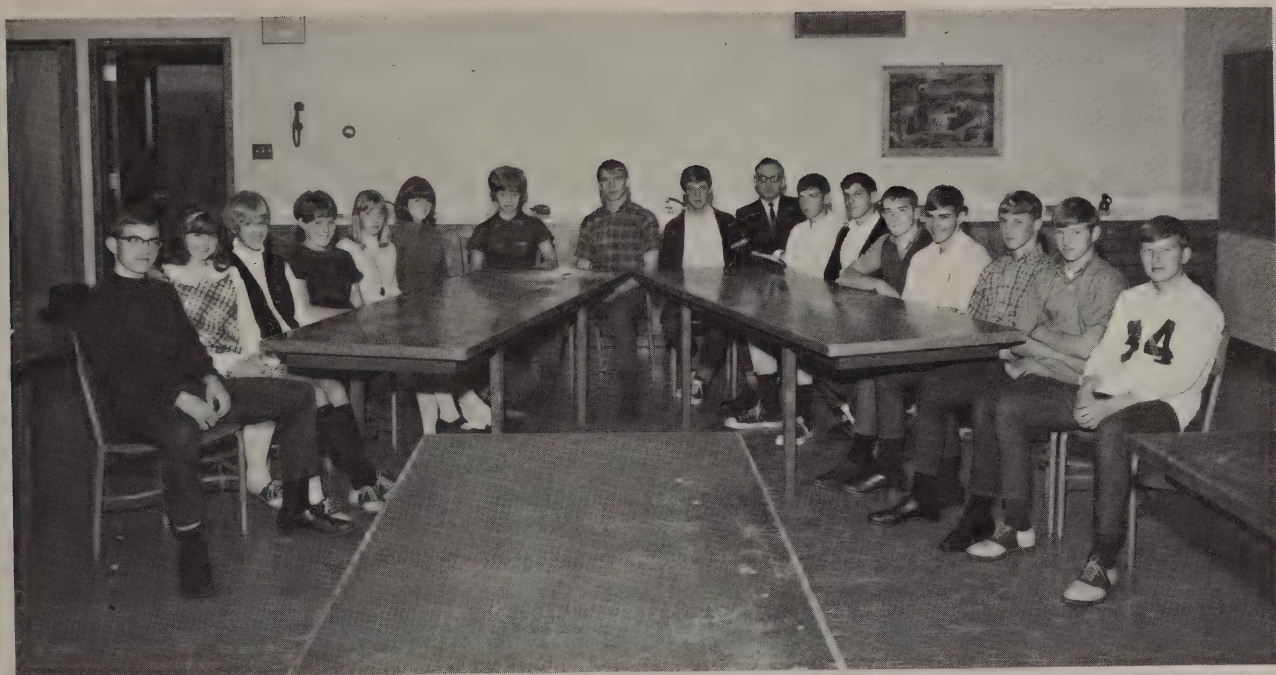

The Debate Team debated on a topic involving freedom. The essence of this topic was whether the U.S. government should conscript everyone. After a season of intensive study and hard competition the team, which placed second in Northern division and third in District, won a birth for the State tournament in Pullman, Washington.

The purpose of the German Club was to learn not only the German language but also her culture. This was done through attending several German church services and putting on a German Christmas party. On other occasions Mr. Boot, the club's sponsor, showed the students slides of Germany and ended the year by taking the seniors of the club to the "Schwarzevald" (Black Woods) restaurant in Vancouver.

Student Council

Nearing the close of another school year, we often look back, trying to judge the merits of the year. We have memories that are good, and memories that are not so good. We have memories that will remain with us the rest of our lives.

On behalf of the student council, I would like to thank the student body and the administration for helping us add just a little to our school life. We have had our successes and our failures, but in our successes everyone benefited and in our failures lessons were learned to prevent their recurrence.

I am proud to have attended L.C.H.S. It is my school, it is your school, and it is God's school. Our school must progress in the future, and it will progress as the students do because the students are the school. So make the most of your school life by making Lynden Christian the greatest school there is.

Your A.S.B. President,
Jim Vander Mey

Work, enjoyment, and ability are three elements that went into another year of choir. Under their new director, Mr. Vande Kerk, choir members again this year enjoyed God-given freedom for using their musical talents. In November they participated in the Thanksgiving Festival and in December they presented a Christmas Concert along with the Band and Freshmen Choruses. Choir members again realized that singing wasn't always fun, especially at six o'clock a.m. when they made an appearance at the Easter Sunrise Service. Although they were unable to attend the Spring Musicale in Spokane this year, they did take a day tour to Olympia and Tacoma. They also received an excellent rating at the Northwest Music Festival held at Sehome. Their last chance to give account of their ability and also their work was at the Annual Spring Concert. Thus another year filled with God's praises was ended.

Band

Under their new director, Mr. Del Vande Kerk, the band at L.C.H.S. exercised freedom of expression by way of music. The Band put on several concerts which included the annual fall concert given in November, the Christmas concert put on with the choir, and the spring concert. Although they didn't go to Musicales, the band did participate at the District contest where they were adjudicated. To add school spirit to ball games, the band was divided into two pep bands, which played alternately at home games and joined to play one night at District.

Hi-Lite Staff

In 1735, Peter Zenger won an important freedom for Americans; the freedom of press. Twice monthly the Journalism class distributes our school paper, the Hi-Lite. The staff puts in a lot of work, time and effort to edit a paper which will give students a chance to express their views, feelings and knowledge freely. The Hi-Lite touches on every phase of student life. During the school year of 1968—1969, the Hi-Lite staff has published an excellent paper.

Excelsior Staff

To help each student relive his favorite moments, the annual staff attempted to capture the events and emotions which predominated the school year. The staff, with Mr. Hof as the new advisor, went to workshops at the University of Washington and Sehome High School to acquire some of the needed skills. There the staff members learned the basics in layouts, writeups, picture-taking, and managing the needed business. The teamwork required to coordinate these functions wasn't easily achieved, but the annual staff hopes that despite its shortcomings, it was successful not only in reminding each student of his favorite moments, but also reminding him of the freedom which he was unconsciously enjoying throughout the entire year.

Lyncs End With 5-4 Record

Just as important as the freedom of thought and expression is the freedom of movement and the exertion of energy. During this past year's football season the LYNCS once again used their brains and brawn. They not only fought valiantly against the strong county teams but they were able to bring about many victories for L.C.H.S. Probably the most remembered part of the season was their win over our cross-town rivals, the Lions. The season could be summed up as rainy, exciting, and successful.

Lyncs Rise From 1st in District To 7th in State

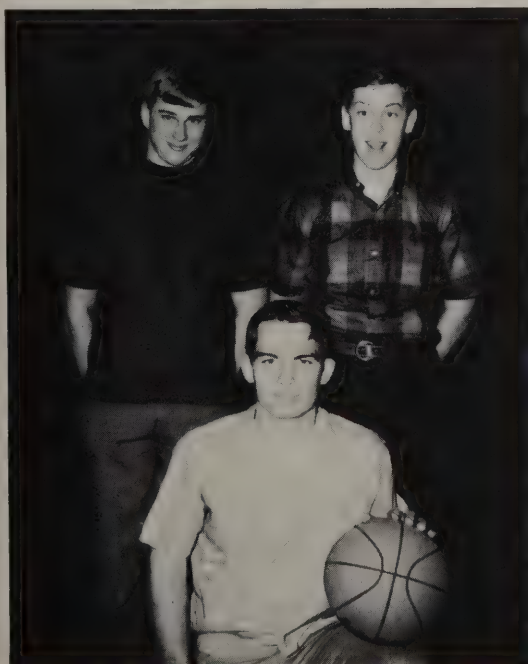

Looking back on the '68-69' basketball season, we find that it provided memories of excitement and success. In his first season as coach, Mr. De Hoog has a squad which claimed only two returning lettermen. Yet, neither the coach nor the team demonstrated inexperience. Throughout most of the season, the team retained the winner's cup while it enjoyed the high state ratings. Besides winning the various trophies with their 19-4 record, they also won the sportmanlike trophy with their sportsmanlike behavior. Though we remember all of the fun and excitement the season provided, we should never forget that we were able to participate only because we were given the opportunity and freedom to compete with other schools. If we remember this, our memories will be a little deeper and will last a little longer.

Jayvees Gain Skill With Victory

Coached by Mr. Vander Laan the Junior Varsity began their season well, winning their first seven games. In the remainder of the season, however, they were not so successful. Though the season didn't end as well as it began, the squad retained a winning (9-7) record. The LYNCS fans should be encouraged by the fact that these fellows displayed much skill which will be of use in coming years.

We've heard a lot about freedom marches, but the Drill Team this year had a different approach to their marching. Each Monday night under the leadership of Cheryl Koetje the Drill Team practiced their routines for performances on Friday night. Their time and effort made for an excellent Drill Team which everyone enjoyed.

Pep Club

To be a member of the L.C.H.S. Pep Club, it is necessary to be a Junior or Senior girl, show an enthusiastic interest in all school sports, and own a healthy pair of lungs to yell with. That's Pep Club — the girls of the school backing up the boys. In their navy blue jumpers and white blouses, they faithfully attend all the games, and show the school spirit needed to help win. Not only did they show school spirit, but they also demonstrated the sportsmanlike conduct which helped win the sportsmanship trophy. Besides backing up the cheerleaders, the Pep Club sold cookbooks and had bake sales to raise money for the All Sports Banquet.

Championship Again.

For the second consecutive year, the varsity baseball squad placed first in county. This year they were undefeated in league play. However despite their accomplishments in baseball, the Lyncs failed to win the county all-sports trophy.

There were only four seniors on this year's baseball squad which means that coach Mellema can look forward to an experienced and we hope a successful team next year.

Cross Country and

This year the cross-country courses were lengthened to three miles from the former two mile courses, but this fact didn't stop the Lyncs cross-country team which was coached by Mr. Vander Laan. The team defeated every single 'A' team in the county and also defeated many double 'A' schools. At the district meet, which included eighteen schools not classified according to size, the Lyncs squad placed sixth. Only Dave Kingma qualified for the state meet where he placed thirty-eighth.

This year's track team made big strides of improvement. Though the year was one of continued rebuilding, two records were broken (mile relay and 2-mile run). Despite the fact that many of its members were young, the team placed third in county and sub-district under Mr. Ypma's coaching.

Top honors went to Dave Kingma, two-miler, who placed fourth in state and who also received the L.C.H.S. trackman of the year award.

Junior High Track Team

Though the Junior High Track Team didn't receive high honors, several of its individual members had a fine season. Coach Blankers took six trackmen to district where they received seven ribbons. It proved to be a successful year, for their experience will be indispensable in years to come.

ADMINISTRATION

Freedom is a gift with a string attached.
It can survive only if, with the death of one generation it is passed on to the next, untarnished and undiminished.

Superintendent

It has been contended that man is not fully able to appreciate a blessing until it is denied him. The homely saying "you never miss the water until the well runs dry" really sums up this contention quite well.

Children miss and appreciate their parents more after they leave home or after their parents are gone. Students frequently talk nostalgically about their school after they graduate.

The blessing of freedom is no different.

You only need read the Old Testament history of the Israelites to see how they forsook God who gave them freedom until they were taken into captivity, and then their psalms and writings became mournful dirges as they reflected upon the days when they were a free nation. More recent history and current events show that men and women will give their lives to be free. The East Berliner who risks all to gain freedom in West Berlin is a case in point.

Now, while freedom is defined in many ways, real freedom is not possible apart from Jesus Christ. He said in John 8, verse 36, "If the Son shall make you free, you shall be free indeed." In bondage to Christ means liberation from sin. Liberation from sin means eternal freedom. In bondage to Satan means slavery to sin. Slavery to sin means eternal slavery.

Many, many people think they are free if they can say what they want, do what they want (or think they want), always have their own way and live without any moral restraints of any kind. After tasting of all the so-called pleasures, they end up with no rest, no satisfaction, no peace, and no hope. They end up on a senseless treadmill of ever-seeking and never-finding that illusive something called freedom and its attendant joys of real peace and happiness.

My senior friends, are you listening? Have you not heard? By God's grace you have been taught repeatedly at Lynden Christian in many ways by many people in many different situations. "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all other (needful) things shall be added unto you." And of those "things" freedom leads the list because, "If the Son shall make you free, you shall be free indeed."

If you have not this freedom, then seek it today from God. He alone can give it!

Happy journeying on Freedom's Road for each of you.

School Board

Freedom, what a thought! What a theme! Yet, what is freedom? It is a word we hear and read much about. There are extremists who claim that freedom is a license to do as you please. Yet, such freedom infringes upon the values of someone else. Is that freedom?

A time of graduation from High School is sometimes looked upon as becoming free. Yet, soon you find yourself caught up in another discipline of learning or work.

We hear much about shorter working-hours and more free time. However, it has been said: "Any fool can adjust to hard work and long hours, it takes great integrity to adjust to leisure."

We live in a free country, under a free government. Yet, if you drive on the wrong side of the street, you get a ticket. Are you free? One finds that governments have to limit freedoms to a certain extent, because freedoms conflict.

Dwight D. Eisenhower said: "All our freedoms are a single bundle, all must be secure if any is to be preserved."

Above all we believe in Christian freedom. Paul writes in Gal. 5:1: "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ has made you free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." And later in verse 13: "... ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion of the flesh, but by love serve one another."

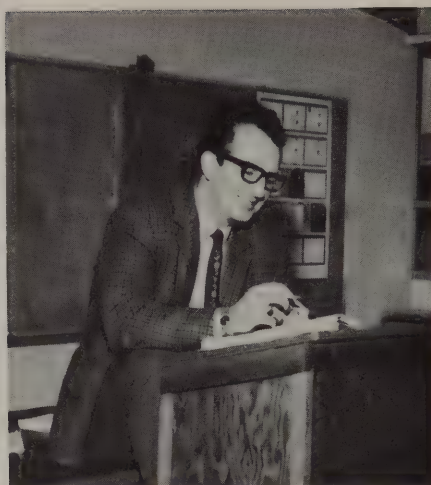

Freedom of religion, press and person is really important to everybody and is longed for by many. As the board of Lynden Christian we hope that you will deeply appreciate these freedoms, and above all, that you "will be free in Christ and by love serve one another."

SENIORS

Masquerade Party

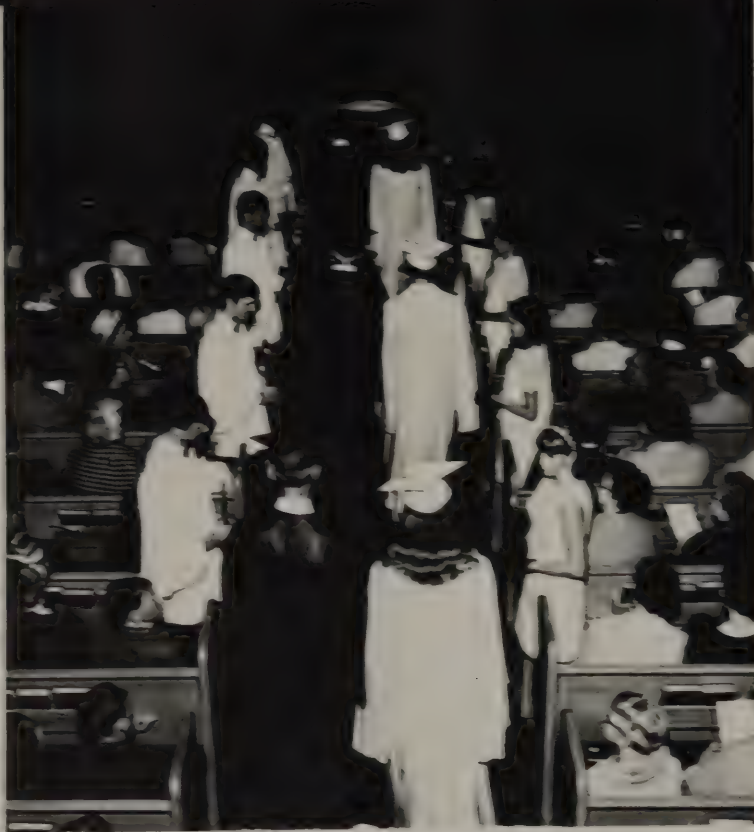

Everything from sailors to Indians showed up at the Burlington Roller Rink for the annual Senior masquerade party. After a night of skating the masquerading mob picked up their blistered feet and headed for Shakey's. The night ended with a few sore seats and many happy memories.

Trip Day

At 6:00 sharp two chartered buses, loaded with sleepy seniors roared away from Lynden Christian. Everyone was wide-awake, however, after touring George Dam. A boat ride across Diablo Lake and inspection of Ross Dam cleared the way for a long-awaited meal. Then a class of contented seniors headed for the Colloseum at Seattle Civic Center to complete a full day with the Ice Follies.

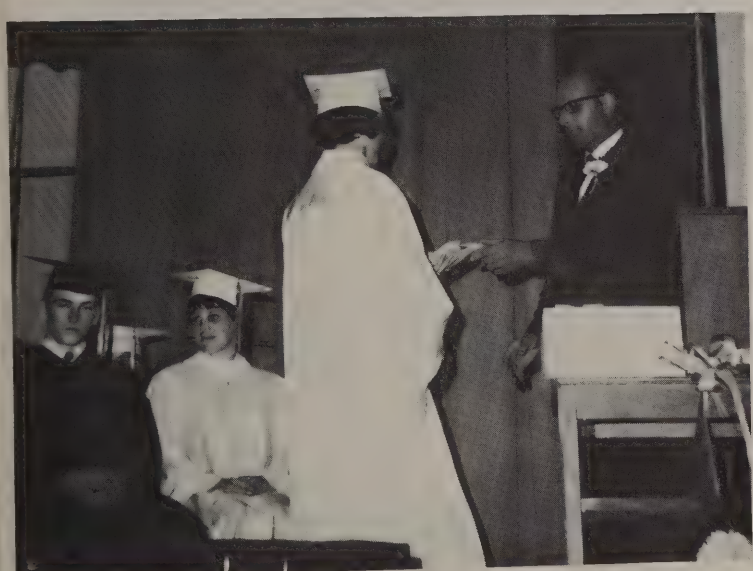

The traditional Baccalaureate service was held in the Bethel Christian Reformed Church. After Scott Bailema sang, "Seek Ye the Lord", Rev. H. Wigboldy of Everson spoke on the theme: One in the Spirit. Once again the seniors were reminded of life's purpose and man's responsibility. Once again they were told that the only way to fulfill these was by being spiritually healthy, that men can not succeed unless they're one — in the Spirit.

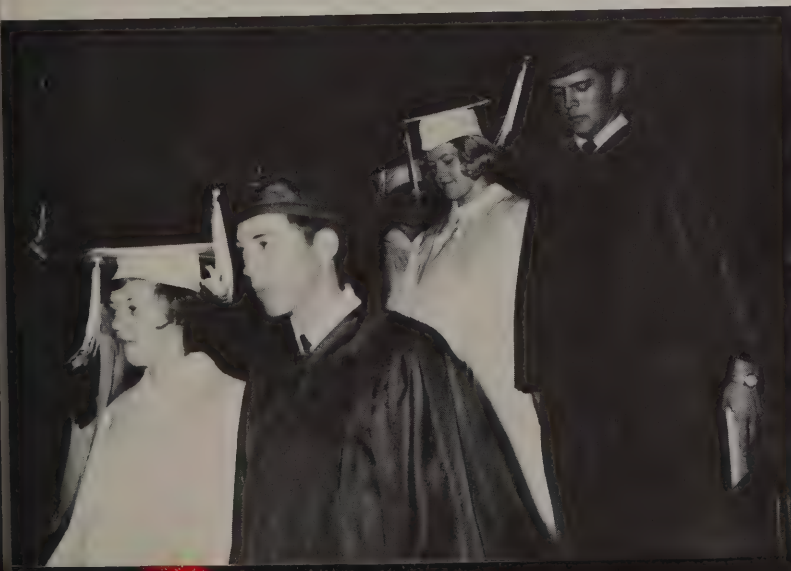

We Are One in the Spirit

As all temporal things must so did the seniors' high school career come to a close. The class chose Gerald Baron to be its speaker and Andy Visser to lead in the class song.

It was a night of graduation as they bade good-byes to their teachers, their friends, and their school-Lynden Christian High.

It was a night of commencement as they looked forward to the future, knowing they would not be lonely for they were all one in the Spirit.

Senior Class

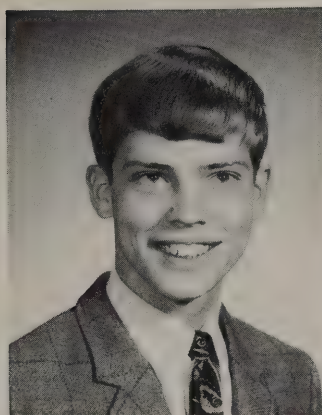

To the seniors, this year was a year of conclusion; a conclusion of many high school careers which were filled with events, and activities. The seniors have experienced both tragic and heart-warming events, and they have participated in social, athletic, and academic activities. It was through these experiences that the individuals not only became acquainted with each other, but also learned to love and respect one another. This harmony wasn't perfect; it couldn't be, for no one is entirely free from greed, enmity or discord. Yet, despite these, it was apparent that a spirit of unity continued to grow, which was expressed in the class motto, "We are One in the Spirit". The class had found a motto which not only expressed a mutual respect for one another, but also a common purpose, a common goal, a common destiny. This destiny will be the ultimate conclusion, the final outcome. We will enjoy freedom, perfect freedom from hostilities, hatred and discord. Then, we truly will be ... "one in the Spirit".

In Memoriam

In the course of their high school career, the seniors lost two classmates — Ruth Kamphouse and Paul Bode. Both were killed in automobile accidents. Though we cannot forget the memories which these pictures bring, we must not forget something of far greater importance. For those in Christ, death is not a defeat, but it is a victory. It is a beginning of freedom from earthly blunders and anxieties. It is the fulfillment of freedom. Ruth and Paul have received the ultimate — they are free!

I Corinthians 15: 55-58 "O death, where is thy sting? O grave where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

O Lord, Help each of us to use the temporal freedoms we have to further Your kingdom, and grant that each student at Lynden Christian High will have the faith through which the ultimate freedom is imparted, so that we with Ruth and Paul, can perfectly glorify Your name forever! Amen.

Acknowledgements

We, the Excelsior staff of 1969, wish to thank all those who have helped us in providing you with an annual you will always enjoy. Our special thanks go to Mr. Hof, our advisor, and the unfailing help of Jim Palm, the company representative. We are also grateful to our photographer, Harta Studios Inc., and our sponsors.

Thank you.

Dear Jean,

It's so nice to be Seniors at last (although you may not agree). We sure had some good times together. Like on the Saturday we went to Sehome. Who! did we ever get wet - guess it happens to the best of people. And then dear old Jean was always there to listen to all my problems etc on the bus. These are the times I like to remember. But Oh yes - how can we forget the Sunday we all went to Sea. High to the concert - man but that was fun - Sure hope we can do something like that again. And then remember our dear little corner in choir? Dear old "U-NO-WHO" never ceased to be the topic of our disgust and amusement. (What people don't know sure don't hurt). Remember how hot it was on the night of our spring concert - we pretty near suffocated! Well, we have musicals to look forward to this year plus all our other senior activities. I hope to see lots more of you and please, always stay as sweet as you are.

Love Always,

Alice

P.S. Don't forget about me (and my kids!) when you're away at college.

Dear Jean, Were Seniors? How bout that, member how only a few years ago we were walking down the same halls with our thumbs in our mouths. last year was really great! Member state? Well you couldn't forget that. Those shopping trips we made and always we seemed to end up back in that one shoe store. Then the last night those boys who hopped in our car and latter followed us to Mount Vernon. The retreat was really neat too. Member the milk drinking contest and how latter they piled the cartons all up. yep we really had some good times together. I hope you have a great senior year and don't you change a bit cause your one of the sweetest kids I know.

Dear Jean
 Hi! Well (like everyone else) I don't it to just go to the senior year. We sure had some good times together. I hope you have a great senior year and don't you change a bit cause your one of the sweetest kids I know. Love Kathy
